MEASURE E BOND CITIZEN
OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

ATTACHMENT I - BACKGROUND INFORMATION

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On November 7, 2000, California voters approved Proposition 39, the Smaller Classes, Safer Schools, and Financial Accountability Act. Proposition 39 amended portions of the California Constitution to provide for the issuance of general obligation bonds by school districts, community college districts, or county offices of education, "for the construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, or replacement of school facilities, including the furnishing and equipping of school facilities, or the acquisition or lease of rental property for school facilities", upon approval by 55% of the electorate.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

On March 5, 2002, the electorate of the Long Beach Community College District approved the issuance of up to $176 million Measure E general obligation bonds with greater than 55% of the votes in favor. The text of the ballot language was as follows:

In order to renovate, repair and replace aging educational facilities, including replacement of electrical, plumbing and sewer systems, and classrooms, acquire equipment, construct job training facilities and high tech computer labs, upgrade restrooms, renovate heating and ventilation systems, install fire safety equipment, replace outdated classrooms and libraries, and establish a Citizens Oversight Committee, shall the Long Beach Community College District issue $176 million in bonds.
